Cutter- Men's Tailoring Department

We currently have a permanent vacancy for a Cutter to join our Tailoring department to provide support to our Senior Cutter in leading a team of 10 tailors.

Working with internationally renowned designers within our new state of the art production building, you will further your career in a busy repertoire environment committed to achieving the highest production standards.

You will realise designs, draft patterns, cut period and modern garments and also fit, alter and refurbish existing costumes for revivals.

Strong communication and organisational skills are essential, coupled with the desire to make an effective contribution to the training and professional development of our talented staff.

We are situated in the Sussex countryside near to Lewes and only 50 miles south of London and benefit from excellent links to both international airports and the Eurostar.

To find out more about joining our world-class team, visit glyndebourne.com/jobs or for an informal discussion please call Pauline Lecrass- Head of Costume on 01273 812321.

The closing date for applications is Midday on Monday 11 December 2017 with interviews to be held in early January.

We are an equal opportunities employer.
